

Resources and Suppliers

Please note that these suppliers are included as a reference guide and in no way constitute a recommendation.

All the links below will open in a new window. Close that new window to return here.

Museums Association has a directory of suppliers (there is a link Find a supplier, on the top bar) where you can search by category or by key word. Most entries have website addresses and direct links.

Resources and Replicas

British Educational Suppliers Association have an online directory of suppliers with links to companies' websites.

Community Playthings for furniture and equipment.

Morleys Furniture

The Consortium

Craft Packs

EQD (Quality Designs for Education).

Newpak for educational and art supplies.

Insectlore educational insect items for parents and teachers of children aged 8 and under.

Tobar collection of toys, gifts, gadgets and curiosities.

TTS Group Their History in Evidence catalogue offers replica objects and costumes linked to the QCA schemes of work.

GLS Educational Supplies

Hawkins

Toypost wooden and traditional toys and games.

Folk in Education for resources to do with traditional music and dance and much more.

Call to Arms resource guide to the Living History and Heritage industry. Over 1300 contacts for re-enactment societies, associations, suppliers, craftsmen and demonstrators, with events, news and articles of interest.

Artefacts Teaching resources, teaching sessions, costumes and personal effects from Prehistoric to Medieval periods. Timber structures and larger metal castings *, with a particular interest in Classical and Medieval siege equipment and machines.

Replica for replica food.

List of makers of reproduction artefacts on the Council for British Archaeology website.

Packaging

Transpack suppliers of packaging products, cardboard boxes, bubble wrap and polythene.

Buckhorn Containers for storing larger items.

Conservation Grade Packing Suppliers

Ryders for acid free cardboard trays and boxes.

Conservation Resources.

Conservation by Design.

Secol for archive friendly sleeves for ephemera/photos.

Polyformes for plastazote.

Dauphin Museum Services display materials.